CATALOGUE GUIDEBOOKS INTRODUCTION

This guide is part of a set of 22 volumes which will lead the reader on an exciting journey of discovery of Piceno territory. Of these 22 guides, 18 are dedicated to the collections of the four museums that make up the Musei Piceni network (Palazzo de Castellotti museum complex, Offida; Palazzo Bonomi Gera municipal museum, Ripatransone; San Francesco museum complex, Montefiore dell'Aso; San Francesco cultural complex, Monterubbiano). The other four volumes are written as itineraries that focus on the specific history, art and environment traits that forge the Piceno identity (Piceno Museums and Collections; Natural Environment and Environmental Education Centres; Typical Towns and Products in Piceno; Artisan Studios of Piceno). Inspired by the complexity of the museum system and the lavish territory where it is located, these guides offer important proof of the fact that every element of material cultural heritage (whether housed in a museum or otherwise) and of Piceno's traditional and typical way of life is the product of what happened and was generated in history and by the territory's social development.

For this purpose, the 18 guides dedicated to Musei Piceni collections not only contain a presentation of each single collection and the relative museum, but also offer the reader an engaging cross-referenced text for putting together the various aspects of the complex web of relationships woven between a museum's heritage, the actual container, the heritage spread across the territory, and the extensive intangible heritage of customs, traditions, rites, legends, and traditional production processes that still reflect the Piceno identity.

The Italian version of each guidebook comprises two main sections: the first is an introduction dedicated to the museum tour and brief notes point the reader/visitor in the direction of the idiosyncrasies of each collection. The second part focuses on one or more objects in the collection and in addition to the general information and the description of the object, offers a series of focused facts for explaining the artefact in more detail and revealing the link between the object and the museum and territorial context in which it is found.

Foreign language texts, in addition to general information offering concise, immediate tips for locating and identifying the object, contain a descriptive part, with three main areas of content: a reading of the image/description, origin and original location (physical context and social setting of provenance), original function and meaning.

The Musei Piceni guidebooks are conceived as four macro categories, one per museum, and are dedicated to the following subjects, which reflect the collections on show in each museum venue.

RIPATRANSONE
GALLERY OF CONTEMPORARY ART

The Galleria d'Arte Contemporanea is located on the ground floor of Palazzo Bonomi Gera where two large rooms are dedicated to the works of major contemporary local artists known at national level. In particular, there are works by Adolfo De Carolis, a native of Montefiore dell'Aso where the San Francesco museum complex houses a section dedicated to him (Sala De Carolis); Aldo Sergiacomi, born in Offida, which has dedicated a museum to his works and, above all, to his artistic thinking (Museo Aldo Sergiacomi); Pericle Fazzini born of Grottammare, whose works are in the first room of the museum.

This room comprises a group of thirty works (including two bronze sculptures, a crucifix and a picture of Ungaretti, two etchings, twenty-five silk-screen prints, and a pastel sketch) and notes, donated to the town by the artist.

The second room shows forty-three works produced for the "40 artisti per il presepio" exhibition, organized in the 1980s, when local artists and great names of contemporary Italian art developed the theme of the Nativity. In particular, in addition to De Carolis and Fazzini, there are works by Mino Maccari, Mario Radice, Renato Guttuso, Emilio Greco, Primo Angellotti, Arnaldo Ciarrocchi. In the second room, Aldo Sergiacomi's 1982 sculpture Lode al Signore is on display.

The Pericle Fazzini room in the Ripatransone museum is something other than a static sequence of works and offers a privileged opportunity to get to know this artist, understand his thinking and the creative narrative that lies at the base of each work. The Ripatransone group of works also allows a grasp of the most representative elements of the personality of the artist and his language, the relationship with the craft through his father's work, his feelings for nature, and the friendship with Giuseppe Ungaretti. The collection may be seen as the last leg of an itinerary that begins with the artist's works outside the museum, including Metamorfosi in the town square of his birthplace Grottammare; a copy of the portrait of the poet and master Mario Riosecchini, in the olive groves of his home in Grottammare; the Stations of the Cross in the church of Sant'Agostino.
